

CONFIDENTIALITY

INTRODUCTION

There will be occasions in which a degree of confidentiality is necessary. This is determined according to the following criteria.

CRITERIA FOR CONFIDENTIALITY

1. Personal information relating to an individual.
2. Information provided in confidence by a third party who has not authorised its disclosure.
2. Financial or other information relating to procurement decisions, including that relating to the College negotiating position.
4. Information relating to the negotiating position of the College in industrial relations matters.
5. Information relating to the financial position of the College where disclosure might harm the College or its competitive position, as determined by the Corporation.
6. Legal advice received from or instructions given to the College legal advisors.
7. Information planned for publication in advance of that publication.
8. Any matter which, by reason of its nature, the Board is satisfied should be dealt with on a confidential basis.
